

Environmental Policy

We at Butterworth Cox Building Contractors are conscious of our social responsibilities with regards to helping the environment through our working practices. Our objective is not only to sustain our environment for our descendants but also to rehabilitate the damage previously done. We believe that our joint responsibility goes beyond our proprietary borders and therefore every effort will be made to conserve resources throughout our operations.

Butterworth Cox Building Contractors will try to not only meet existing environmental laws and regulation, but will endeavour to go beyond the status quo and see techniques and approaches that position us ahead of our completion.

Growth of our business depends on our abilities to minimise or eliminate our impacts on our surroundings. Our ultimate success depends on the environment of the United Kingdom, without a beautiful country, our customers will cease to come. Our company's future and the future of our environment are interconnected.

Awareness and Commitment

Our policy towards the environment will be readily available and promoted to our customers. We will endeavour to ensure staff and customers are familiar with and implement our environmental commitment and objectives.
